

Margaret A. Morrison, B.S., MBA

Non-Executive Director

Known for driving innovation and change management, embracing diverse thoughts, intensely focusing on the client experience, and delivering business results, Margaret is considered a 'go-to' senior leader, trusted advisor, and mentor. A retired principal and senior leader at EY, she is the CEO of M.A.M. Consulting Partners LLC, a boutique consulting firm helping organisations accelerate profitable top-line growth. Margaret has been propelling Meritus' industry leadership as a Board Advisor since January 2020, becoming a Non-Executive Director in April 2021.

Margaret's Credentials

- Master of Business Administration, Finance, Marketing and International Business
- Bachelor of Science, Education
- Scaling Up Certified Coach
- America's Partner Cash Flow Story

Margaret's Accolades

- National Associate of Corporate Directors Governance Fellow
- David Rockefeller Fellow, Partnership for NYC

Margaret's Honours

- Board Member, New York Women's Foundation, New York
- Member of the International Women's Forum
- Member of How Women Lead
- Member of Viridian Managed Fund, Angel Investor/Venture Fund, and its Evaluation Committee
- Board Member of 325 Central Park Cooperative
- Past Member, Financial Services Global Markets Executive, Ernst & Young LLP, New York
- Past Co-Chair, Committee for Economic Development's Subcommittee Advancing Women in Corporate Leadership
- Past Board Member, Women's Bond Club of New York

