

Haley Ball

Executive Project Coordinator

Haley is a dynamic professional with a wealth of experience in administration, project management, and project marketing. She joined Meritus in 2023 as an Executive Project Coordinator. With a proven track record in orchestrating seamless operations and driving organizational success, Haley brings a multifaceted skill set to the Meritus team.

Her proficiency extends to strategic planning, facilitating executive-level initiatives, managing complex projects, and fostering cohesive team dynamics. Haley's recent engagements across diverse sectors have helped her hone her ability to streamline operations and optimize resources, while consistently contributing to attaining overarching business objectives.

Haley holds a degree in Communications and Critical Thinking from Trent University in Ontario, Canada.