

Keeka Simons

Trust Officer

With a legal foundation from The University of Law in London, Keeka graduated in 2018 and swiftly qualified as a lawyer, gaining admission to the Bermuda bar in 2019. Her commitment to continuous growth led her to secure a Diploma in International Trust Management in 2023. Today, Keeka specializes as a Trust and Estates Practitioner, leveraging her expertise to navigate complex legal landscapes. As an active member of The Society of Trust & Estates Practitioners (STEP) Bermuda branch, she contributes as a practitioner and in a leadership capacity, having been appointed as the Student Liaison Officer to provide invaluable support for current and prospective students.
