

Danute Rico Slotkus LL.M

Senior Trust Officer

Danute joined Meritus in March 2026 as a Senior Trust Officer. She has full legal training, graduating with an LL.B from Rosario University in Colombia (highest honors) and was admitted to the Colombia Bar in April 2002. She then earned her Masters in Business Law (LL.M) with distinction from the University of Geneva, Switzerland. She is trilingual, fluent in Spanish, French and English.

Danute started her legal practice in 2002 as an in-house corporate lawyer at a multi-industry holding company in Colombia, and then after finishing her LL.M in Switzerland, she focused on private client work as a Legal Counsel for Private Clients with Lombard Odier Group in Geneva, a role she held from 2005 to 2011.

Later, she continued serving private clients as a Senior Estate Planning Specialist with RBC Bank and its trust company in Geneva, and then as a Senior Wealth Planner for international clients within Bank Syz SA in Geneva until 2021.

Since then, Danute has served as a board member, independent wealth planner and philanthropic advisor for a Swiss charitable foundation.

Danute moved with her family to Bermuda in 2023.
